

PROPHETIC WORD 2025

TWO FIVE - GRACE IN THE DIVIDE

Matthew 10:34-39

Just like wine, there is a bittersweetness to what I am now doing. I am creating a greater divide between those who do versus those who say much but do little. You will see my power and promotion to those who respond to me. You will see evidence of my fruit in the ones who humble themselves before me. I am bringing you into new things and removing you from old things. Sometimes, you will want to hold onto the old, such as your way of life, ways of doing things, old perspectives, relationships, jobs, etc.

I'm dividing you from your desires to my desires, from your plans to my plans, I'm dividing you from the wrong influences into the right influences, I'm dividing you from wrong perspectives of yourself and the world to my perspective, I'm dividing you from loneliness into family, I'm dividing you from wandering into calling, I'm dividing you from practice into presence, I'm dividing you from busyness into effectiveness. Some of this will be hard; brace yourselves; some of this you will have to choose, but other times, it will be chosen for you, thrust upon you like a storm that came out of nowhere.

Things are being shaken and will be shaken even more. But do not fear! This is serving My purposes and is for My Glory. Don't resist Me, respond to Me, turn to Me, and you will receive My grace. You will experience ease amid hardship, you will find courage amid opposition, you will find direction and clarity amid chaos, step into the new, and as you receive this there will be the sweetness of My joy! The latter will far outweigh the former; the result will be greater than the process. After it's through, you'll be glad you went through it. This is for my Glory!

JOSHUA - FAITHFULNESS

Joshua 1:7

Like putting up a sail when the wind comes, I bring the wind of My Spirit. You can choose to raise your sail and catch it, or you may choose not to; the choice is yours, but the outcome is Mine. I have said that I reward those who do My will; do you think those were empty words? Do you think that I don't see your actions? Do you think that I don't know your heart? Do you believe that I have forgotten My faithful? No! I search for those who are faithful, I search for those whom I can trust, and I reward those who remain steadfast and true to Me. I give more to those who are faithful. Hear this! Catch the moment and respond accordingly; let your yes be yes and no be no because I am watching and promoting.

I am bringing my promotion to the faithful both in the spirit and in the natural. You say, "They are not gifted," but I say, "They are faithful; I gift them". You say, "They are not qualified." Still, I say, "They are faithful, so I qualify them." You ask, "Why were they chosen?" I say, "Because I choose who I want to choose and I choose the faithful, I bless who I want to bless, and I bless the faithful!" To you who thought that I forgot you, to you who thought that I didn't see you stay true in the secret place, you will not think after I do what I am about to do. I am putting you on display for my Glory!

If you have not been faithful in the past, today is a new day. Respond to my Word, repent, and turn to me. Instead of judging everyone else, let My Spirit judge you, let My Word pierce your heart, and respond to Me in humility. As you do, I will shower you with mercy and grace. I will make the crooked path straight. I will mold you into my image. I will make you one of My faithful ones. This opportunity for blessing, promotion, and outpouring is available to all of you. So choose today whom you will serve!

DAVID - OPPORTUNITY

2 Samuel 5:6-8

Ephesians 5:16-17

Little things, little things, too many times I have given you the little stone that would destroy your big giants, but you toss it aside. Too often, the whisper of My Spirit is ignored because you're too busy listening to the flames of your emotions and desires. Too often, My Word is challenged by the rebellious to support their will instead of bearing my truth. Has My Word not stood the test of your time? Has My Truth lost its value?

You think that I am on trial and that you are the judge. You weigh in your heart whether to believe me, listen to me, or obey me. But I am not on trial; I am the judge and the boss. I am not the one who has to prove anything to you. I am the parent, and you are the child. You want to be near Me, yet you don't fear Me; to be near Me is to fear Me.

You complain that no one is true or trustworthy, and you also make those complaints against Me. But I have the same complaint against you. You want what you don't have, you want joy, you want a blessing, you want prosperity, you focus on the wealth and luxury of others, you want peace, yet you rage inside. You cry for My fire, but when the fire comes, you abandon Me. When things don't go your way, you get mad at Me and blame Me. This is not a true marriage. This is not a relationship founded upon trust. This is not for good or bad or for rich or poor. This is a relationship where you either get your way or leave.

You've become a master counter of other's wrongs, yet you don't tally up your own. But lucky for you, I don't think how you think, and my ways are not yours. I am merciful and will come to you again to draw you back to me. The doors of opportunity are wide open.

In a land of critics who thrive on the specks of wood in other's eyes, I call you to look at the log in your eye. Repent of your sins and turn from your stubborn ways and hard heart, and I will turn to you; I will cleanse you, renew your spirit, restore joy and peace, and bless you. Believe in and trust Me because I have called you to slay giants. I have set you up to take the lands. I have given you a small stone that is the weapon of your warfare: stop discounting it, stop complaining about what you don't have and can't do, and focus on what I have already given you. Make the most of what I give you.

I did not call you to do this alone but to let Me go before you, so trust and follow Me! This is a time of opportunity. Your "yes" will breed success. Your stepping out will not be in vain but will produce a strong foundation; your willingness to comply will bear fruit in your life. I am excited at the joy, breakthrough, and victory that will happen as you step into me and make the most of this opportunity.
